RULES OF CONSTITUTION OF PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION

In compliance with the guidelines given by the Directorate of Education for the constitution of PTA, the following rules must be adhered to, with an objective to make the process smooth, fair and transparent.

1. The Parents are requested to be seated section-wise.
2. Any one parent either father or mother is eligible to participate in the election process.
3. One parent is to be selected from each section to be the section representative.
4. If the parents are not unanimous in the choice of the representative, the decision will be finalised by conducting voting in the form of counting of the hands being raised.
5. Parents can nominate, propose and second only one candidate for the same post.
6. Use of mobile phones in the school auditorium is not permitted.
7. Nomination form, If found incomplete in any respect, will be rejected outrightly.
8. Nomination can be rejected at any stage if the details filled up by the parent in the Nomination Form are found incorrect during the verification.
9. Parents who have no school dues pending for their ward will only be eligible to fill nomination form.
